

Continuing Professional Development: Building Quality

IFLA CPDWL Workshop – Session 109, Room C220, 15 August 2016, 13:45-15:45

Workshop Agenda

13:45-14:00 Introductions; workshop objectives and procedures. Objectives state that you will

- * Develop your understanding of the IFLA CPD Guidelines
- * Consider the application of the Guidelines to your role in the library & information sector
- * Determine the strategies that will help you adopt best practice approaches to your CPD activities
- * Draft a plan of action to help achieve your organisation's CPD goals in the coming months.

14:00-14:05 Introduce yourselves to colleagues at your table; select recorder; select one person who has a laptop to access <http://www.ifla.org/publications/node/10532> for reference to full Guidelines.

14:05-14:20 Read the Guidelines section that is most relevant to your role (e.g., employer, professional association officer, training provider).

14:20-15:20 Discussion at each table, moderated by CPDWL members; key issues, conclusions, disagreements, etc. collected digitally by recorder.

15:20-15:30 For each table, one person reports in one or two sentences what the group has found to be the most valuable take-away from the discussion.

15:30-15:40 Email yourself a plan of action for improving CPDWL at your organization by May 2017; cc to

Gillian Hallam g.hallam@qut.edu.au

Ewa Stenberg ewa.stenberg@mah.se

Jana Varlejs varlejs@rutgers.edu

15:40-15:45 On the lined side of index card, write a sentence about what was the most valuable thing you learned at this workshop; on the blank side, write about what was missing or disappointing.

Follow up:

May 2017 Workshop organizers will email you to ask about progress with their action plans.

Meanwhile, share the Guidelines with colleagues. If you can, replicate today's workshop in your region.
